Church Roll Book

The Church Roll Book, which you will have signed to signify your acceptance of Spiritualism as your chosen religion based on the Seven Principals, when you were invited into full church membership, is the churches archive and an important historical document. Should you decide to terminate your church membership, it would be helpful if you would consent to your personal details being kept on the Roll Book, as to remove them would deface and spoil this important document.

Please indicate your consent for us retain your personal details in the Church Roll Book, in perpetuity, following the end of your church membership below. Should you agree to us retaining your data we may share your details with the Spiritualist National Union for historical research and administrative purposes.

☐ Yes, I agree to you holding my personal details in perpetuity

☐ No, I do not agree with you holding my personal details and request you delete them securely

You can grant consent to all the purposes; one of the purposes or none of the purposes. Where you do not grant consent we will not be able to use your personal data; (so for example we may not be able to let you know about forthcoming services and events); except in certain limited situations, such as where required to do so by law or to protect members of the public from serious harm. You can find out more about how we use your data from the SNU "Privacy Statement" which is displayed in the church. You can withdraw or change your consent at any time by contacting the Church Secretary in writing at (Address) or the Data Protection Officer listed above.

Please note that all processing of your personal data will cease once you have withdrawn consent, other than where this is required by law, but this will not affect any personal data that has already been processed prior to this point.

SPIRITUALISTS' NATIONAL UNION
Data Consent Form

Your privacy is important to us, and we want to communicate with church members in a way which has their consent, and which is in line with current law on data protection.

(Name of Church) is the representative

The Data Controller for churches is the Spiritualist National Union (SNU)

The Data Protection Officer for the SNU is Rachael Loukes and can be contacted at:-
Spiritualists' National Union, Redwoods, Stansted Hall, Stansted, Essex CM24 8UD
Telephone: 01279816363,
Email: rachael.loukes@snu.org.uk

The legitimate aim of the church is to ensure they hold accurate and up to date details of members and facilitate administrative processes in accordance with church rules and SNU processes.

Recipients of the data include the church secretary and the SNU

The retention period of your data is for as long as you remain a member of the church plus 2 years.

Your rights are as follows:

1. The right to be informed of what data is held on you and how it will be used
2. The right of access to the information held by the church
3. The right to have your information corrected
4. The right to have your data erased
5. The right to restrict processing of your data
6. The right to data portability where practical and feasible – this may include transferring your data to another church/centre/SNU
7. The right to object to your data being held and processed
8. The right not to be subjected to an automated decision which produces a legal effect or a significant effect on you. In these circumstances, you can request human intervention; express your point of view; and obtain an explanation of the decision and challenge it.

The church would like to retain the details of your membership for a period of 2 years after membership. The reason for storing your data is to provide a record of church membership required for members wishing to undertake awards and accreditations with the Spiritualist National Union.

Under Data Protection Principle 5 and to comply with the General Data Protection Regulations Article 5(1)(e) there is a requirement to ensure personal data is not retained for longer than necessary.

In order to comply with the above we must obtain your consent to hold your data for the purpose explained above. Any data stored beyond the end of your membership will be held securely. Please complete the form on the next page to indicate your preference.
